Homecoming "76"

Special days observed during the week of September 29 prepared students for Homecoming Day on October 3. A first this year was the building of floats with ribbons awarded as prizes. They were a colorful part of the parade through town in the afternoon. Football fans were disappointed by our loss to North (7-14), but spirits rose again at the Homecoming Dance.

Out contribution to this Bicentennial Edition is the following brief history of the present school district.

Diane Cowell has collected and researched most of the facts included and has done most of the writing. This is not meant to be a complete chronicle, but rather a collection of a few interesting facts and pictures.

Through the years, all the schools had the desire to provide the best educational opportunities possible for their children. This is the heritage from which the M-F-L Community School District grew.

This is the only bell that ever called Monona pupils to school and so can be called the "original" bell. In 1926, when the old school site was abandoned, the bell was not moved. In 1930 the Senior Class provided funds to have it moved, but somehow the matter was not carried out. In 1942, a committee of alumni collected money and had the bell moved and mounted where it now stands on the school grounds.

The bell was made by the Jones and Company Founders, Troy, New York in 1869. The inscription, written by Clara Curtis Otis from the first graduating class, is a tribute to our educational heritage. It states: "The original Monona School Bell, treasured emblem of the visions of our pioneers: 1870-1942",

The first officers of the School District were Jonathan Smith, President; T. A. Olmsted, Secretary; and H. E. Howe, Treasurer.

The first school was a building 21 x 24 feet in size. It was erected on the site known as the Koth Mill, now the Monona Co-Op. The cost of this building shown in early records was $55.00 exclusive of furnishings. The first teacher was Almira Parks, whose wages were: 5.00 per month.

In 1857 the need for a larger school building was realized and another building was erected on the east side of town. This was a two story building 28 x 40 ft. in size and accommodated 109 students. The cost of this building was $1,700.00.

In 1869 the school board, after many stormy sessions, purchased a tract of land known as Lot 1, Block 1, New Monona, and a large two story brick building was exected. This building still stands and is a part of the present Northside Apartment House.

The new 1869 brick school building . . . .

In 1906 a two story brick addition was added to the west side of the original building, and in 1915 an east wing was added. This last addition included two modern classrooms, a manual training and domestic science room, and a gymnasium occupying the entire upper floor. The total cost of the building program in the district up to this time did not exceed $4,500,00.

On April 9, 1926, the patrons of the school district, by a vote of 2 to 1, approved the plans for a new school building. They also authorized the directors of the school district to issue bonds in the sum of $95,000,00 for the construction of the same. This was the first building on the present site of the Monona school, It was a two story brick structure which housed all the Grade, Junior High and High School students.

, and in 1906 with the west wing added,

After consolidation with Farmersburg, an election on July 20, 1955 gave approval for the issuance of $375,000 in bonds for the elementary addition to the school. It was also used to build and equip the all-purpose room at Farmersburg and to buy additional land there. The new additions were officially opened in May of 1957. This provided, in the Monona building, ten elementary classrooms, music and practice rooms.

The buildings as they now stand in Monona were completed in 1967 with the addition of 2 shops, a gymnasium-auditorium with dressing and shower rooms, and a kitchen at the north end of the old gymnasium which can now be used as lunch room and multi-purpose room.

Farmersburg

Farmersburg Township had previously been united with Mendon, Giard and a part of Clayton townships for election purposes. After a political defeat, the county commissioners were petitioned to separate Farmersburg township; this was granted and organization took place in 1850.

There were eight school sub-districts, and eight school houses, valued at the time at $10,000.00. The first school house was built in the Pioneer district, on land owned by Joseph Mott, in section 10. Religious setvices were frequently held in this school house. The first successful teacher was Ann Smith.

The village of Farmersburg, known first as Windsor, was surveyed in March, 1858 by Norman Hamilton. The name was given by Thomas Street, a son of General Street. The area south of National nearby was known as "Old Billy King land".

The first building erected in Winsor was built in 1848 by Aiva Hazen. It was constructed of logs and stood about 2 blocks south of the depot. This building served as the school house for the surrounding community.

In 1852 Silas T. Woodward built what he planned to use as a store. He purchased a few dollars worth of goods at Prairie du Chien, but he never opened it. Instead, the building was used as a school house where he performed the duties of teacher. In 1855, the school was graded into two departments. The teachers were Lucy Kingsley and Inez Woodward.

The two story frame building located at the same site as the present building was later moved to a spot near Probert's Station where it was used for a feed store.

The main part of the present building was erected in 1914, and in 1957, after consolidation with Monona, Later a brick school was built in a tavine back of what is now the Heidel-berg Garden Supper Club.

The school Annual was called the Luana Ramblers, and by that time, the Luana basketball team was also called the Ramblers.

To go to a school dance it cost 25 cents and forty cents. To attend a movie in 1933, it cost ten cents or twenty cents at the Rex Theater in Monona.

Giving class plays must have been the thing to do in the 20's. The three members of the Class of 1922 presented a play entitled "Getting Acquainted".

Formation of the present school district was a gradual process. In September of 1952 a petition bearing signatures of voters from school districts in Monona. Giard. Wagner and Farmersburg townships in Clayton County and of Franklin and Linton Townships in Allamakee County was filed with A. H. Oelberg, County Superintendent of Schools. It called for the formation of a consolidated school district of schools in these townships with the Monona Independent School District. Then followed a series of elections, with areas approving one after the other.

with 47 members.

At a special election on Tuesday Nov. 15, 1960, the formation of the M-F-L Community School District carried by a vote of 663 to 39. Members of the Board for the new school district were elected in January and the new district came into its own legally on July 1, 1961.

The first M-F-L Graduating Class had 66 members.

Nearly all of these schools appeared in the 1886 Plat Book of Clayton County. Old issues of THE MONONA LEADER provided the election dates. From those earlier times, through today and into the future—the desire is for the best in educational opportunity for citizens of our community.
